A detailed pencil drawing of a mountainous landscape. In the foreground, several tall, slender pine trees stand on the left side. A calm lake reflects the surrounding scenery. In the background, a range of rugged mountains with sharp peaks and rocky textures dominates the view. The overall style is that of a fine-line pencil sketch with soft shading and cross-hatching for texture and depth.

A photograph of a well-manicured pine bonsai tree with a thick, gnarled trunk and several branches bearing clusters of green needles. The tree is positioned in the center of the frame. Behind it is a decorative screen or wall featuring a traditional Japanese aesthetic. The screen consists of vertical wooden slats with arched openings. Through these openings, a light-colored background is visible, overlaid with a traditional Japanese ink wash painting (suiboku-ga) of a landscape with mountains and a tree. The overall scene is brightly lit, highlighting the texture of the tree's bark and the vibrant green of its needles.

A leopard is lying on a light-colored sofa in a room. The wall behind the sofa is covered in a large mural of a lush jungle with various green plants and trees. There are several potted plants in the room, including a large one on the left and another on the right. A window is visible on the far right side of the image.
